nize the views of the internal community here at Harper," said Don Duffy, Student Sen-ate president, in an effort to show the trustees that the fac-ultified spirit, and students had acted in a unified spirit.

ulty and students had acted in a unified spirit. The Faculty Senate had voted by majority or two occasions (before and after the Fri-day rally) to support the student's request, Martin Ryan, senate president stadi. The board is the final de-liberator. Ryan vated, the student's request, and the liberator. Ryan vated the last things the faculty and for the stading the stading the confrontation.

"PERHAPS THE board has the final decision about what papiers to the flag," and Richard Mugalian. 121 Sparrow L. Palaitie.

But the important thing is that the board understand what the flag represents to the faculty and students. It (the Harper campus) is the home of the faculty and students. It (the Harper campus) is the home of the faculty and students. campus is the hone of the fac-ulty and saturents, and, the preponderant feeling if that the flag be lowered seven day or even a month, the board should act in that light." he continued. Phone calls to the college president should not be the de-ciding factor, Mugalian, a law-yer, led the trustees.

Savor summer in knits

The Day

Suddenly summer is here! That time of the year when we respond to the call of the outdoors.

year when we respond to the call of the outdoors. Still, no matter how casual we feel, we nevertheless want to feel feminine and neatly dressed.

Cotton knits will set just such a happy mood for summer. They're free-wheeling, casual and comfortable — not to mention easy care. Let separates reign supreme. Color-cued, you can switch back and forth with flair creating many outfits from just a few basics.

Jamaicas and short shorts are still big news as are straight-leg pants. Tunics look fabulous over slacks, doubling with dash as mini dresses. To double your pleasure even more they are all wonderfully washable nylons and Dacrons, adding even more time to your summer relaxation. even more time to your summer relaxation.

In-home fashion shows are becoming the vogue

By Frances Altman

Shopping in the comfort-able atmosphere of your own living room is the theme of Beeline Fashions, Inc., Ben-senville, the largest company of its kind in the world.

Pantyhose becoming a "must"

Pantyhose is the offspring of the miniskirt. And it gave the hosiery industry a new lease on life. But there are some problems still to be solved before everyone will be happy to wear them. One is proper fit. Another is bewilderment caused by the many fibers and colors now availables.

One spokesman for the ig-dustry, Charles Vaffee of Part-lane, said. "The best piece of advice I can offer is to choose partybase according to your body type and the occasion for which you need them. For ex-ample, a working girl waring a miniskirt should wear sheer 15-danier parths se with a reinforced toe. All this, of course, preguouses that she course, presupposes that she has a pretty shapely figure. If she has a figure problem, she should wear pinde-top pan-tyhose."

CHOOSING pantyhose ac-cording to your body type should make shopping a simple matter. But sometimes, regardless of the charts of mearegardless of the charts of mea-surement on the packages, a medium size is right in one brand, yet you need "long" in another. And if you can't find the shade you want in a brand you know, you must take a chance on getting something that isn't quite comfortable to Yaffe says help is on the way by the introduction of one-size pantyhose that will fit all but the extremely tall girl or the girl who is heavy-set.

"Provision has also been made for the tall girl," he made for the tall girl, he indicated pantyhose as well and even working on materiaty pantyhose. Parkpun, a new yarn, is also expected to prevent the roblem of bassing.

For sunners there is a new the roblem of bassing.

French touch

Try a main dish pie

Add a touch of France to your next brunch, lunch or even dinner with Quiche (pronounced "keesch") Lorraine, a French inspired, open-faced, main dish pie.

originated in the re-gion of French Lor-raine, the classic recipe for Quiche Lorraine called for a round shell of puff or pastry filled with eggs, cream and bacon or sinoked ham bits. However, this variation provides a zesty balance of saus-age or bacon, cheese and eggs accented with onion and nutmeg.

good use of any left over ham. It's flaky pastry is made quickly from refrigerated cres-cent dinner roll dough.

Another variety quiche combines cheese and noodles fla-vored with green pep-per, pimiento and a cup of mellow Ched-dar-imaginative fare for feeding a hungry bunch and yet maintaining that certain Continental flair.

Complete your menu with a childed fruit compote made from slices of citrus fruits. For a huncheon or dinner, you might choose a fresh greea salad sparked with orange slices and walnuts, then toss with an Italian-style dressing.

Talk with a teacher

Several weeks ago, when I visited the Instructional Materials Center at the Forest School in District 62, I realized that something very exciting and interesting was happening here.

It was after 3:30 in the after-noon, and I could feel the ex-citement in the air. Some chil-dren were waiting to talk with the librarian, and others were busily searching for something from the many books on the shelves...

I stopped one of the boys who appeared to have finished his work and asked him about this after-school activity. He confusioned that his work had asked him about this after-school activity. He confusioned that him work he last days of a contest — a contest to day of a contest — a contest to be could to as hist of agestions given to them by their librarian. Peter Herman them said that he had found 5% of the answers to the for questions given to them. It was his and the other chilling the contest of the contest of the contest of the contest.

This contest was like a game to these children, a learning game that stimulated them to think logically and helped to develop both concentration and perseverance. They were and at the same time having

THE FOLLOWING are some of the questions asked by the librarian, Mrs. Elaine Sharp:

Nothing quite like it anywhere.

You'll enjoy a bird's eye view of our golf course, and beyond it Arlington Park Race Track, where thoroughbreds run all spring and summer.

Your gaze will take in a stunning interior, a feast of color wherever you look.

Then, when you call for the menu, ler feast begins. Entrees from around the world, with the accent always on fine dining.

During dinner The Notables play old nd new tunes for dancing. Starting at 9:30, they blend music, song and comedy and turn Top of the Towers into a supper club.

In the Towers Lounge, Coes Beaart ys guitar and sings in seven languages A most entertaining background for cocktails.

Wheeling teacher tells need for wayward boy's home

By Jonnman.

The Northwest suburbs need a house for runsway and wayward boys, according to Donald Day, speaker at last Friday's Wheeling Jayeee installation banquest. Day has run such a program for six months. He said that part of the reason for its failure was that he could not be in the "home" all the time because of his sob.

PLEASANT HILL Shakertown, Kentucky

One of the most exciting restorations since Colonial Williamsburg is now taking place at Shakertown at Pleasant Hill, Kentucky. Since its opening in April, 1968, it has become a major tourist attraction where visitors can enjoy authentic early 19th century atmosphere. Shakertown was established in 1805 when three Mercer County farmers accepted the Shaker faith with its demands celibate purity, confession of sins, separation from the world and commugutters; ground level entrances to the cellar and original Shaker blue paint on the interior halls woodwork and red on the baseboards.

About 100 people lived in this house, the rooms occupied by two or more people, sisters on the right, brothers on the left. Separate stairways were designated for each sex. The family houses were not occupied by actual families but by large groups of Shakers living a communal existence as families.

Shakertown is located seven miles nity of worldy goods. By 1820 the village from Harrodsburg, Ky., and is open daily throughout the year to the public.

The largest house in the village is the Center Family House, which took ten years to construct and is now used as the Shaker Museum.

Its walls were cut from stone and raised door jambs and sills are molded stone. Other features include iron railings and large stone platforms; stone splash blocks to receive water from the

Hybrid breeding has revolutionized the garden

IT COSTS more to produce F-1 hybrid seed than open pol-finated seed. In some cases it costs so much more that seed-men have been hesitant about even offering the F-1's to the public. But the difference in men have been hesitant about even offering the F-1's to the public. But the difference in the gardenis tremendous, and it has been a revelation to seeds-men to discover that garden-ers who have seen that differwho have seen that differ-ce and who have an oppor-nity to choose between a 25 nt packet and a $1 packet ow not the slightest reluc-

THIS TIME, it was the same story as the men from Yaator tool to the Wolfpack by 1860 points. 12-10. The match was so close that if the Lions had won one match by one less set, they would have tied for first.

Desairs, St. Patrick and St. Jo-seph. — the Lions, Jim Datton placed third and Mike McMahon was fourth in the singles competition. Dat-the the Lion lost to the first seeded play-er in the tournament in the semi-finals and might have placed second.

IN THE doubles com-petition, top-seeded Dan Kiv-lahar and Bill Hitzeman took three matches on the way to a CPL crown. Chuck Cereposh and Greg. Alare placed third for the Lasin Second seemed to be the or-der of the day for the I tors, who also finished second on
